

Why prescribe Methadone?

Methadone is a proven, cost-effective analgesic for select patients with pain receiving palliative care.

Canadian Virtual Hospice, in collaboration with leading pain management specialists, has created an online training course for physicians wishing to improve their knowledge in methadone prescribing for pain management in palliative care.

Free · Quick to complete · Standardized to evidence

Methadone4Pain.ca

Do You Know Your Methadone?

1. Methadone's main role in palliative care is in managing pain in people with a history of opioid addiction. (True) or (False)
2. The generally accepted conversion ratio to methadone from morphine is:
 - (a) 2:1
 - (b) 8:1
 - (c) 20:1
 - (d) All of the above, depending on the clinical context, including how much morphine a patient has been receiving.
3. In order to prescribe methadone, you must be a specialist in addictions medicine, pain medicine, or palliative care. (True) or (False)

ANSWERS: 1. (FALSE) 2. (D) 3. (FALSE)

For more information email us at info@virtualhospice.ca

virtualhospice.ca

Production of this online course has been made possible through financial support from the Canadian Partnership Against Cancer and Health Canada. The views herein do not necessarily represent the views of Health Canada or the Canadian Partnership Against Cancer.