FMF SPEAKER CODE OF CONDUCT

The College of Family Physicians of Canada is proud of the professional development that occurs each year during Family Medicine Forum - FMF.

The CFPC and FMF are dedicated to providing a positive event experience for all participants, and expect attendees, speakers, exhibitors, volunteers, and staff to show respect and courtesy toward one another at all conference and conference-related events. We value ideas, thoughts and expression, and we appreciate new pedagogy when delivering workshops and sessions. Foul and discriminatory language and imagery is not appropriate for any event venue, including meetings, workshops and sessions, whether online or in a face-to-face environment.

We do not tolerate harassment in any form. Harassment is understood as any behaviour that threatens another person or group, or produces an unsafe environment. It includes offensive verbal comments or non-verbal expressions related to age, ancestry, colour, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, mental disability, physical disability, family status, language, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, physical appearance, religion, sex, sexual orientation. , It further includes sexual or discriminatory images in public spaces (including online), deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

Any such conduct will result in immediate action, including, but not limited to, expulsion from the program and all future programs as offered by the College of Family Physicians of Canada and Family Medicine Forum.

Thank you
