

FMF Policies and Guidelines

Eligibility to Exhibit

All businesses and associations who offer knowledge, products and/or services pertaining to family medicine professionals are welcome to apply to exhibit at Family Medicine Forum. The Family Medicine Forum Committee (FMFC) determines the overall criteria for eligibility to exhibit. The CFPC reserves the right, even after an application to exhibit has been approved, to restrict and/or cancel any booked exhibit it deems undesirable or objectionable.

Conditions of Contract to Exhibit

The policies and guidelines outlined in this manual are applicable to every exhibitor. The CFPC retains full authority in the interpretation and enforcement of all rules and regulations governing exhibitors. These regulations may be amended at any time by the CFPC. Exhibitors agree to abide by all conditions in this document and by all conditions under which space has been leased to the CFPC. Exhibitors further accept responsibility for informing all their employees, suppliers, agents, staff, and volunteers involved with their exhibit of these conditions and agree that these individuals will also abide by these conditions. Exhibitors and their representatives hereby agree to indemnify and hold the CFPC harmless, and all its official suppliers, employees, agents, and affiliates against all claims for loss, damage, theft, or injury. Indemnification includes the move in and move out period prior to and following FMF. The exhibitor, upon signing the application form contract, releases the foregoing parties from all claims for loss, theft, damage, or injury. Under no circumstance is the CFPC responsible for an exhibitor's expenses or any other incidental or consequential damages.

GUIDELINES FOR COMMERCIAL INTERESTS

In January 2018 the National Standard for support of Accredited CPD Activities was released by the Royal College, the Collège des médecins du Québec (CMQ) and College of Family Physicians of Canada (CFPC) to safeguard the integrity of certified CPD activities from the influence of sponsoring organizations that could lead to bias. The Standard provides a definition of Commercial Interests. This definition will be utilized in determining eligibility to participate in some sponsorship and / or incentive-based opportunities.

A Commercial interest (CI) is defined as: For-profit entities that develop, produce, market, re-sells or distribute drugs, devices, products, or other healthcare goods, services or therapies that may be prescribed to patients or ordered by doctors in the diagnosis, treatment, monitoring, management or palliation of health conditions.

This section of the National Standard defines the requirements related to exhibits and sponsors:

- 6.1 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on, appear within, or be adjacent to:
 - any educational materials, slides, abstracts, and handouts used as part of an accredited CPD activity.
 - activity agendas, programs, or calendars of events (preliminary and final).
 - any webpages or electronic media containing educational material.
- 6.2 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on/appear within locations where accredited CPD sessions are occurring (e.g. lecture halls, small group discussion rooms) immediately before, during or immediately after an accredited CPD activity.
- 6.3 Commercial exhibits or advertisements must be arranged in a location that is clearly and completely separated from the accredited CPD activity.
- 6.4 The SPC cannot be required by an exhibitor or advertiser to accept advice concerning the CPD activity development, delivery, or evaluation as a condition of their exhibit or advertisement. Specific interests of any exhibitor or advertiser must have no direct or indirect influence on any aspect of the CPD activity development, delivery, or evaluation.
- 6.5 Any incentive provided to participants associated with an accredited CPD activity must be approved by the CPD provider organization or scientific planning committee.

FMF Policies and Guidelines

Commercial Interests may be required to supply the following materials:

- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide statements of key messaging, branding, and all disclosures
- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide a listing of all products or services planned for promotion at FMF
- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide copies of all print materials planned for distribution at FMF
- Exhibitor/sponsor may be asked to provide proofs of signage or displays related to FMF
- All Promotional messaging must follow all guidelines as specified by FMF Policies & Guidelines, CMA Guidelines, National Standard, and Innovative Medicines Canada (as applicable).

Thank you for reviewing and adhering to all guidelines. We appreciate your support and dedication to family medicine!
