Policies and Guidelines

Eligibility to Exhibit

All businesses and associations who offer knowledge, products and/or services pertaining to family medicine professionals are welcome to apply to exhibit at Family Medicine Forum. The Family Medicine Forum Committee (FMFC) determines the overall criteria for eligibility to exhibit. The CFPC reserves the right, even after an application to exhibit has been approved, to restrict and/or cancel any booked exhibit it deems undesirable or objectionable.

Conditions of Contract to Exhibit

The policies and guidelines outlined in this manual are applicable to every exhibitor in a virtual, hybrid and live conference format. The CFPC retains full authority in the interpretation and enforcement of all rules and regulations governing exhibitors. These regulations may be amended at any time by the CFPC. Exhibitors agree to abide by all conditions in this document and by all conditions under which space has been leased to the CFPC. Exhibitors further accept responsibility for informing all their employees, suppliers, agents, staff and volunteers involved with their exhibit of these conditions and agree that these individuals will also abide by these conditions. Exhibitors and their representatives hereby agree to indemnify and hold the CFPC harmless, and all its official suppliers, employees, agents and affiliates against all claims for loss, damage, theft, or injury. Indemnification includes the move in and move out period prior to and following FMF. The exhibitor, upon signing the application form contract, releases the foregoing parties from all claims for loss, theft, damage, or injury. Under no circumstance is the CFPC responsible for an exhibitor’s expenses or any other incidental or consequential damages.

GUIDELINES FOR COMMERCIAL INTERESTS

A Commercial interest (CI) is defined as: For-profit entities that develop, produce, market, re-sells or distribute drugs, devices, products, or other healthcare goods, services or therapies that may be prescribed to patients or ordered by doctors in the diagnosis, treatment, monitoring, management or palliation of health conditions.

This section of the National Standard defines the requirements related to exhibits and sponsors:

6.1 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on, appear within, or be adjacent to:
   - any educational materials, slides, abstracts and handouts used as part of an accredited CPD activity;
   - activity agendas, programs or calendars of events (preliminary and final);
   - any webpages or electronic media containing educational material.

6.2 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on/appear within locations where accredited CPD sessions are occurring (e.g. lecture halls, small group discussion rooms) immediately before, during or immediately after an accredited CPD activity.

6.3 Commercial exhibits or advertisements must be arranged in a location that is clearly and completely separated from the accredited CPD activity.

6.4 The SPC cannot be required by an exhibitor or advertiser to accept advice concerning the CPD activity development, delivery or evaluation as a condition of their exhibit or advertisement. Specific interests of any exhibitor or advertiser must have no direct or indirect influence on any aspect of the CPD activity development, delivery or evaluation.

6.5 Any incentive provided to participants associated with an accredited CPD activity must be approved by the CPD provider organization or scientific planning committee.

Commercial Interests may be required to supply the following materials:

- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide statements of key messaging, branding and all disclosures
- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide a listing of all products or services planned for promotion at FMF
- Exhibitor/sponsor to provide copies of all print materials planned for distribution at FMF
- Exhibitor/sponsor may be asked to provide proofs of signage or displays related to FMF
- All Promotional messaging must follow all guidelines as specified by CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines and Innovative Medicines Canada (where applicable).
Exhibitors and sponsors agree to abide by all the conditions set forth here, and as published in the FMF Policies & Guidelines Manual and by all conditions specified by FMF and the CFPC.

Your organization and all representatives agree to strictly follow CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines and Innovative Medicines Canada (where applicable) and all amendments as required.

All policies and guidelines will be monitored and strictly enforced in a live or virtual setting.

The College of Family Physicians of Canada retains full authority in the interpretation and enforcement of all rules and regulations and these regulations may be amended at any time by the CFPC.

The CFPC reserves the right, even after an application to exhibit or sponsor has been approved, to restrict and/or to cancel any booked exhibit or sponsor which it deems to be undesirable or objectionable.

The CFPC and FMFC continue to monitor the ongoing situation. The CFPC may be required to alter many aspects of the Exhibit Hall, booth or sponsor inclusions.

In certain instances, it may be necessary for the CFPC to request additional information from the exhibitor or sponsor regarding their corporate affiliations and practices.

Exhibitors and sponsors may be required to supply some of the following materials upon request: a listing of all products being promoted at FMF, copies of all print materials for distribution at FMF, proofs of signage and/or displays related to FMF, details regarding any contests, incentives or samples at FMF, key messaging and all disclosure statements. From time to time the CFPC may restrict certain categories of exhibitors and sponsors.

During the event exhibitors and sponsors are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner.

Lead retrieval systems to be utilized in a polite and professional manner.

Exhibitors and sponsors accept full responsibility for informing all employees, contractors, and onsite staff of all conditions and agree that their employees, suppliers or agents will also abide by these conditions.

The expected code of conduct as outlined will be observed and enforced. Any infractions or inappropriate conduct may result in immediate removal, without remuneration, and exclusion from future opportunities.
