Foreign Exhibitors:

For all customs and shipping needs please contact Freeman

Height & Sightline Restrictions:

Please contact show management if your booth will exceed 8 feet in height. All exposed parts of displays must be draped or finished to present an attractive appearance when viewed from aisles or adjoining exhibits. An exhibit may be 8' high along the back 50% of the sides of your booth. The front 50% on both sides must be free from obstructions.

Subletting Space:

Subletting space in the Exhibit Hall is not permitted. Two or more organizations may not exhibit in a single space unless these arrangements have been submitted in writing to fmfexhibits@cfpc.ca and approved prior to the conference. Any violations may result in immediate expulsion without compensation or refund.

Noise Restrictions:

Noise from any electrical or mechanical apparatus must not interfere with the rights and privileges of the exhibitors. Show management will monitor noise, light, and odor levels, and the CFPC reserves the right to exercise its own judgment in responding to exhibitor complaints in this regard.

Banner Hanging:

Exhibitors may hang banners along the pipe if appropriate S hooks are used. No material, pins, or tape may be attached to the drape. No signs, posters, or other items or articles are to be fastened to Convention Centre property by any means.

Off-Site Promotion:

No advertising, promotional, or demonstrative materials are permitted on trailers, trucks, corridors or any display devices on the principal venue property or hotel lobbies without express written consent.

Unauthorized Promotion:

Only Exhibitors and Sponsors have the exclusive right to promote or sell goods and services in this show. All other parties who attempt to solicit attendees without the express written permission of FMF Management will be permanently removed from the FMF Venue.

Fire Safety:

All display materials must be flame-proofed and subject to inspection by the local fire department. Please refrain from using any flammable materials within the facility. In the event of an emergency, follow emergency exit signage and any instructions from facility staff.

Health and Safety:

- Exhibitors are responsible for the health and safety of all their staff, volunteers, affiliates and contractors throughout the duration of the event, including move in and move out.
- Exhibitors must ensure all their employees, representatives and affiliates comply with all required safe work practices and be properly trained to carry out their job tasks safely.
- Any injury must be reported immediately to the FMF management team and the facility.
- Exhibitors and their contractors must respect and give right of way to vehicle and forklift traffic during move-in and move-out
- Personal protective equipment should be worn in all cases where there is a risk of worker injury.
- To minimize the risk of foot injury, exhibitors and contractors are highly encouraged to wear safety shoes during the move-in and move-out periods.
- Open-toe shoes or high heels may not be worn in the hall during move-in and move-out.
- Tables and chairs may not be used as an installation platform at any time.
- We highly recommend contracting official labour services via Freeman for all installations.
- To reduce risk of slips, trips and falls, dispose of all waste and packaging immediately.
- Please strive to keep aisles clean and clear of debris for the duration of the show.
- If there are any special arrangements required to install or build an exhibit, the exhibitor must advise the FMF Exhibits Lead prior to move-in.
- Exhibitors and contractors may not bring children under the age of 16 into the exhibit areas during set-up or tear-down.

Policies and Guidelines – FMF 2023

Policies and guidelines apply to ALL exhibitors

Eligibility to Exhibit:

All businesses and associations who offer knowledge, products and/or services pertaining to family medicine professionals are welcome to apply to exhibit at Family Medicine Forum. The Family Medicine Forum Committee (FMFC) determines the overall criteria for eligibility to exhibit. The CFPC reserves the right, even after an application to exhibit has been approved, to restrict and/or cancel any booked exhibit it deems undesirable or objectionable.

Conditions of Contract to Exhibit:

The policies and guidelines outlined in this manual are applicable to every exhibitor. The CFPC retains full authority in the interpretation and enforcement of all rules and regulations governing exhibitors. These regulations may be amended at any time by the CFPC. Exhibitors agree to abide by all conditions in this document and by all conditions under which space has been leased to the CFPC. Exhibitors further accept responsibility for informing all their employees, suppliers, agents, staff and volunteers involved with their exhibit of these conditions and agree that these individuals will also abide by these conditions. Exhibitors and their representatives hereby agree to indemnify and hold the CFPC harmless, and all its official suppliers, employees, agents and affiliates against all claims for loss, damage, theft, or injury. Indemnification includes the move in and move out period prior to and following FMF. The exhibitor, upon signing the application form contract, releases the foregoing parties from all claims for loss, theft, damage, or injury. Under no circumstance is the CFPC responsible for an exhibitor's expenses or any other incidental or consequential damages.

Payment Terms:

- Full payment is required 30 days after invoice is received
- At the discretion of CFPC, booths will be released for resale if payment is past due 30 days
- FMF accepts cheques, credit cards and bank transfers

Cancellation:

All requests for cancellations must be made in writing and emailed to fmfexhibits@cfpc.ca. Cancellations made by August 31, 2023, will receive a full refund, less a $500 admin fee. After August 31st, 2023, all contracts are payable at 100% and are non-refundable.

Should FMF be cancelled, your booth or sponsorship can be transferred to a future year or full refund upon request.

Privacy Policy:

The collection of attendees' personal information is subject to Canadian privacy laws (PIPEDA) and the CFPC Privacy Policy here. The CFPC does not provide attendee lists to exhibitors or participants. If you receive any calls or emails from an unauthorized service, please report to fmfexhibits@cfpc.ca

Covid Safety:

- FMF strongly recommends all onsite attendees be up to date with their COVID-19 vaccinations
- FMF strongly encourages attendees wear a mask unless maintaining a distance of 6' from others and / or actively eating or drinking
- Subject to the Province of Quebec and/or the City of Montreal public health guidelines and restrictions at the time of FMF

IMPORTANT GUIDELINES

The College of Family Physicians of Canada adheres to and supports all relevant industry guidelines for FMF. All exhibitors and sponsors are required to read, know, understand and follow all guidelines. All exhibitors must review and comply with the following industry guidelines:

- Canadian Medical Association's Guidelines for Physicians in Interactions with Industry
- The National Standard for Support of Accredited CPD Activities
- Innovative Medicines Canada's Code of Ethical Practices; where applicable.
- Quebec Code of Ethics where applicable
- FMF Policies and Guidelines (this document) and any changes or amendments as required

GUIDELINES FOR SAMPLES, INCENTIVES/GIVEAWAYS, AND CONTESTS

1. SAMPLES are permitted, with approval only, submitted in writing a minimum of 30 days prior for approval by FMF Management. Samples must adhere to all guidelines as specified by CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines, Innovative Medicines Canada (as applicable). As below:

Canadian Medical Association Policy:

42. The distribution of samples should not involve any form of material gain for the physician or for the practice with which he or she is associated.

43. Physicians who accept samples or other health care products are responsible for recording the type and amount of medication or product dispensed. They are also responsible for ensuring their age-related quality and security and their proper disposal.

FMF Policies & Guidelines: Exhibitors may not distribute drugs, devices, products, or other healthcare goods, services or therapies that may be prescribed to patients or ordered by doctors in the diagnosis, treatment, monitoring, management or palliation of health conditions.

Innovative Medicines Canada (For IMC members only): 10.1.3.2.5 a Member is not allowed to distribute samples at a conference or congress.

2. INCENTIVES / GIVEAWAYS - Incentives/Giveaways of nominal value are permitted with a maximum value of approximately $20 and can include items such as pens, USB drives, etc. Any unusual items must be submitted in writing to fmfexhibits@cfpc.ca a minimum of 30 days prior for approval by FMF Management. Incentives and Giveaways must follow all guidelines as specified by CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines and Innovative Medicines Canada (where applicable). Policies as below.

Canadian Medical Association Policy:

44. Practicing physicians should not accept personal gifts of any significant monetary or other value from industry. Physicians should be aware that acceptance of gifts of any value has been shown to have the potential to influence clinical decision making.

National Standard for Support of Accredited CPD Activities

6.5 Any incentive provided to participants associated with an accredited CPD activity must be approved by the CPD provider organization.

FMF Policies & Guidelines: Incentive-based opportunities are not applicable to exhibitors who aim to influence patient care decision-making by family physicians.

Innovative Medicines Canada (For IMC members only):

10.1.3.2.2 It is appropriate for the Member to set up a booth or display in the Exhibit Hall of the conference or congress. In doing so, a Member must respect the conditions set out in Section 11 of this Code. Gifts, offers or enticements provided by a member to encourage a stakeholder to visit a display are prohibited.

3. CONTESTS - Contests are permitted, with approval only, submitted in writing to fmfexhibits@cfpc.ca using this form a minimum of 30 days prior for approval by FMF Management. Prizes should be educational in nature. Contests must follow all guidelines as specified by CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines and Innovative Medicines Canada (where applicable).

National Standard: 6.5 Any incentive provided to participants associated with an accredited CPD activity must be approved by the CPD provider organization

FMF Policies & Guidelines:

1. Exhibitor/sponsor must agree to follow all national and provincial contest policies and guidelines
2. Exhibitor/sponsor must agree to adhere to all CASL and PIPEDA regulations
3. Exhibitor/sponsor are prohibited from assigning CFPC or FMF names or logos to their contests
4. All contests must be approved by CFPC / FMF Management 30 days prior to FMF
5. Added restrictions imposed by CFPC, national/provincial changes will supersede these guidelines

Quebec Code of Ethics:

Page 12. As part of a CPD activity, the organizer is allowed to organize a draw. The prize must be an acceptable educational tool which is awarded for the primary purpose of helping a healthcare professional and his patients, and not to provide anyone with a personal advantage. As for types of incentives, one must make a distinction between commercial incentives (e.g., passports that are given out to increase traffic at a trade show) and those that aim to make the educational process better (e.g., filling out a survey to define needs or evaluate an activity). The first type of incentive is to be prohibited. The second type, whether it is awarded on an individual or group-basis (draws), it must be sensible and have an educational purpose.

Innovative Medicines Canada: (For IMC members only): 10.1.3.2.2 It is appropriate for the Member to set up a booth or display in the Exhibit Hall of the conference or congress. In doing so, a Member must respect the conditions set out in Section 11 of this Code. Gifts, offers or enticements provided by a Member to encourage a stakeholder to visit a display are prohibited.

All policies and guidelines related to Sampling, incentives and contests are detailed in Appendix A.

Applicable to all approved opportunities

Distribution of samples, incentives, giveaways, promotional materials and contest solicitation is confined to the Exhibitor's own booth space. Such activities are not permitted in the aisles, restaurants, registration areas, hallways or in other exhibits. Exhibitors are encouraged to respect their neighbours.

GUIDELINES FOR SPONSORSHIP

- Any sponsorship received for FMF must be documented in a written agreement and signed by an authorized representative of the sponsoring organization.
- All sponsorship of FMF must meet professional and legal standards including the protection of privacy, confidentiality and copyright and contractual law regulations.
- Sponsors must follow all guidelines as specified by CMA Policy, National Standard, FMF Policies & Guidelines and Innovative Medicines Canada (where applicable).
- Sponsors are prohibited to have any direct or indirect influence of any aspect of the development, delivery or evaluation of any certified CPD activity.
- Sponsorship requests from commercial interests are subject to enhanced vetting guidelines

NATIONAL STANDARD OVERALL GUIDELINES FOR A CERTIFIED EVENT

- 6.1 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on, appear within, or be adjacent to:
 - any educational materials, slides, abstracts and handouts used as part of an accredited CPD activity.
 - activity agendas, programs or calendars of events (preliminary and final).
 - any webpages or electronic media containing educational material.
- 6.2 Product-specific advertising, promotional materials or branding strategies cannot be included on/appear within locations where accredited CPD sessions are occurring (e.g., lecture halls, small group discussion rooms) immediately before, during or immediately after an accredited CPD activity.
- 6.3 Commercial exhibits or advertisements must be arranged in a location that is clearly and completely separated from the accredited CPD activity.
- 6.4 The SPC cannot be required by an exhibitor or advertiser to accept advice concerning the CPD activity development, delivery or evaluation as a condition of their exhibit or advertisement. Specific interests of any exhibitor or advertiser must have no direct or indirect influence on any aspect of the CPD activity development, delivery or evaluation.
- 6.5 Any incentive provided to participants associated with an accredited CPD activity must be approved by the CPD provider organization or scientific planning committee.
